The Autochthonous, Aboriginal and Indigenous Moorish American

The Word:

Autochthonous is the most definitively correct, as well as most grammatically appropriate adjective used to best describe individuals who may have previously referred to themselves as African American; but now correctly (through their own invaluable right of self-determination) have chosen to identify themselves by the use of more Internationally Respected LEGAL terms, which define not only their LEGAL Status in LAW, but genealogically as well! The word “Autochthonous” is to a certain extent synonymous with the word:

Aboriginal, in that the actual definition of the “Autochthonous” is:

“An inhabitant of a place (e.g. America) who is indigenous to the land rather than descended from migrants or colonists who came from other lands and locations elsewhere.”

- Indigenous Peoples, also known as the first peoples, or legally the Aboriginal Native's possessing Inheritable Blood ties to their Native Homeland, are genetically the original ethnic groups of any given region, in contrast to other groups which settled, occupied or colonized any land mass or continent.
- Inheritable Blood: Legal and Lawfully is Blood which has the legitimacy necessary to give its possessor the character of a lawful heir; that which is capable of being the medium for the transmission of an inheritance.

The Autochthonous, Aboriginal and Indigenous Moorish American

The more Internationally Respected LEGAL terms, (mentioned above) which define not these individual's LEGAL Status in LAW, but also genealogically as well are all equally valid Anthropologically correct terms synonymous to the noun Moor:

Muur, Aboriginal Native American Muurish, Moorish, Moorish American

The most important attribute of these particular industrious individuals who have chosen (without reservation to exercise their own Legal Right of Self-determination) to invest their time and required diligent research efforts toward arriving for and by themselves at the initially shocking truth and understanding of a scientifically factual historical reality which has been quite strategically hidden from most. Hidden behind the fact that, although quite a large number of “so called” African Americans or (more correctly) Direct Descendants of European Enslaved Africans were transported from West Africa across the Murderous Middle Passage to the shores of the West Indies and then to our lands of the Americas: (North, South, East West and Central) i.e. The Descendants of the 110-160 enslaved West Africans who were smuggled upon the schooner Calotilda in the autumn of 1859, just short of five-and-a-half-decades (54 years) after the abolishment of the European Colonists' Horrifically Immoral enslavement of the preexisting human population (who so graciously had provided the Europeans (as shown within George Washington's Letter) sanctuary from the path of Britain's King George) and other enslaved humans who were transported from West Africa, like those identified above, however a much darker secret was held from us.

The Autochthonous, Aboriginal and Indigenous Moorish American

Africatown, also known as AfricaTown USA and Plateau, is a historic community located three miles (5 km) north of downtown Mobile, Alabama. It was formed by a group of 32 West African, who in 1860 were included in the last known illegal shipment of slaves to the this land.

WHO IN 1860 WERE INCLUDED IN THE LAST KNOWN

The item to your right (which may be enlarged and downloaded with a simple click) is the letter mentioned above from George Washington (to the Sultan Muhammed Ibn Abdullah) which, in his own words articulated the truth of the European's being provided sanctuary within the Moorish Sultan's Dominions.

The Autochthonous, Aboriginal and Indigenous Moorish American

The above mentioned darker secret held from us a far more profound reality which shrouded the buried truth of the fact that a far greater majority of our particular ethnic group are the Direct Bloodline Descendants of the Original/ Aboriginal Native Moors and Olmec Meso-American Indigenous Civilizations, the same people which existed here on this continent of North America long before a time predating the Great Pandemic's physical separation of the continents of Africa from what we now call the Americas.

Although most of us are quite familiar with our own individual family oral histories in which we all have so often hear tell of our direct Blood Lines' connecting us to those family roots we are already aware of which extend deep into the tribal lineages of the individuals which early European's also so incorrectly Branded as being: American "Indian," who by legal definition were identified as the Allodaryl Tribesmen whose Maternally Inherited Mitochondrial DNA is (like ours) Primordially Paleo-Asiatic, did in fact migrate at such a distant point in time that the term Indigenous American would (“for all intent and purpose”) also stand legitimately as a correct descriptor for that branch of our family tree. They were those who by most earlier legal definitions are identified as: “The original Coper Colored People inhabiting America prior to the European’s arrival.” My reasoning for placing the phrase (“for all intent and purpose”) above is not really of major consequence, but more so simply to denote that the primary linguistic misnomer of that particular misdescription does in fact exist within the fact that, although many tribes associated with other relative branches of our family trees were (as stated above) and do still remain accepted and considered by most as being legitimately “Indigenous” and or “Native” to these lands; we the Moors, (Muur, Aboriginal Native American Muurish, Moorish, Moorish American) did not, (even during that period of time in which the European identifies as being Prehistoric, to the European’s or Pre-his-story) at any point in time migrate to this land. We were in fact, since time immemorial, Already HEAR!

The Autochthonous, Aboriginal and Indigenous Moorish American

Although many of our distant and/or not so distant family's (stemming from our "so called" American "Indian" bloodlines) tribal connection's ancestry did in fact anthropologically leave for our modern day Evolutionary Geneticist significant archaeological evidence of certain tributary migrations to these lands (during periods in time which long predate the Europeans' "so called Prehistoric times) the more important Anthropological Scientific Fact is, that the majority of those in much greater number who have heretofore felt comfortable and even (understandably) prideful in their use of the Brand

"African-American" (which by the way was originally contrived and offered up to the Eurocentric Mainstream Media by Jesse Jackson for our cultural programing's next accepted Brand after the other past disparaging misnomers Nigger, Negro, Black and/or Colored) is, the fact that the greater majority of our families are Ancestrally (through unbroken bloodlines)

the Direct Descendants of the same cultures and civilizations which were in existence here prior to the Great Pandemic Separation, and you are IN FACT the same as what your forefathers were!

THE SCIENTIFIC COMMON SENSE OF The Saline Cracker Reality

by Jonathan Bey

ASK YOURSELF THIS VERY SIMPLE, YET EXTREMELY LOGICAL, COMMON SENSE QUESTION.

If you take a Saline Cracker and break it in half, does “ALL” OF THE SALT on the cracker somehow miraculously jump over to one or the other side of the cracker? Or, is there in fact a reasonably far better and much more realistic practical probability that ALL OF THE SALT will remain pretty much in its place, equally distributed on each broken half, with the ONLY one real difference being, that the cracker has now been broken into two separate halves, with the salt still remaining in place unchanged, equally disbursed.

SO, . . NOW, IN A SIMILAR MANNER, ASK YOURSELF THE SAME SORT OF COMMON SENSE QUESTION REGARDING THE SEPARATION OF OUR EARTH’S (ONCE SINGULAR) LAND MASSES.

Using The Exact Same GOD GIVEN COMMON SENSE AS WELL AS “SCIENTIFIC” LOGIC, as in the above Saline Cracker example; would it be (IN ANY MANNER WHAT-SO-EVER) even slightly reasonable to conceive or accept the totally illogical idea that the Aboriginal, Indigenous inhabitants of this once singular landmass, did in fact somehow, ALL (suddenly) decided to migrate ”EXCLUSIVELY” to the (“so called”) African side of the dividing landmass. Or, would it in fact be far more logically reasonable to accept the fact that we, as a people (the Indigenous inhabitants who (by and under International LAW) have always been correctly recognized as Asiatic MOORS) not (other ignorant and disparaging misnomers) i.e. Niggers, Coloreds, Negroes, Blacks and/or of course the most current inappropriate “BRAND” coined by Jesse Jackson:

“African American”

WE, IN FACT, WERE ALL READY HERE

TRUTH WILL SET YOU FREE

A Note Worth Pondering

by
JONATHAN BEY

The maxim "Parochial Education = Educational Strangulation helps one to appreciate that much of what we have been taught (in school) to believe may in fact not be so.

Although we take most of what we have been trained to believe as being points of unquestionable fact, it fortunately doesn't require a great deal of fact to be applied to our mental bindings before the light of truth exposes certain illogical falsities.

The following (what I have coined The Great American Riddle) is a mind exercise I hope may help some to appreciate how we have been conditioned to accept certain major falsities which literally shapes our own concepts of who we are without question.

Weigh first the following Scientific Fact, then answer as best you can the riddle:

SCIENTIFIC FACT

- Biologically it's impossible for a human to go without water for more than six days without experiencing electrolyte dysfunction, bio-deterioration and the shutting down of major life sustaining organs due to an absence of proper cellular hydration.

The Great American Riddle

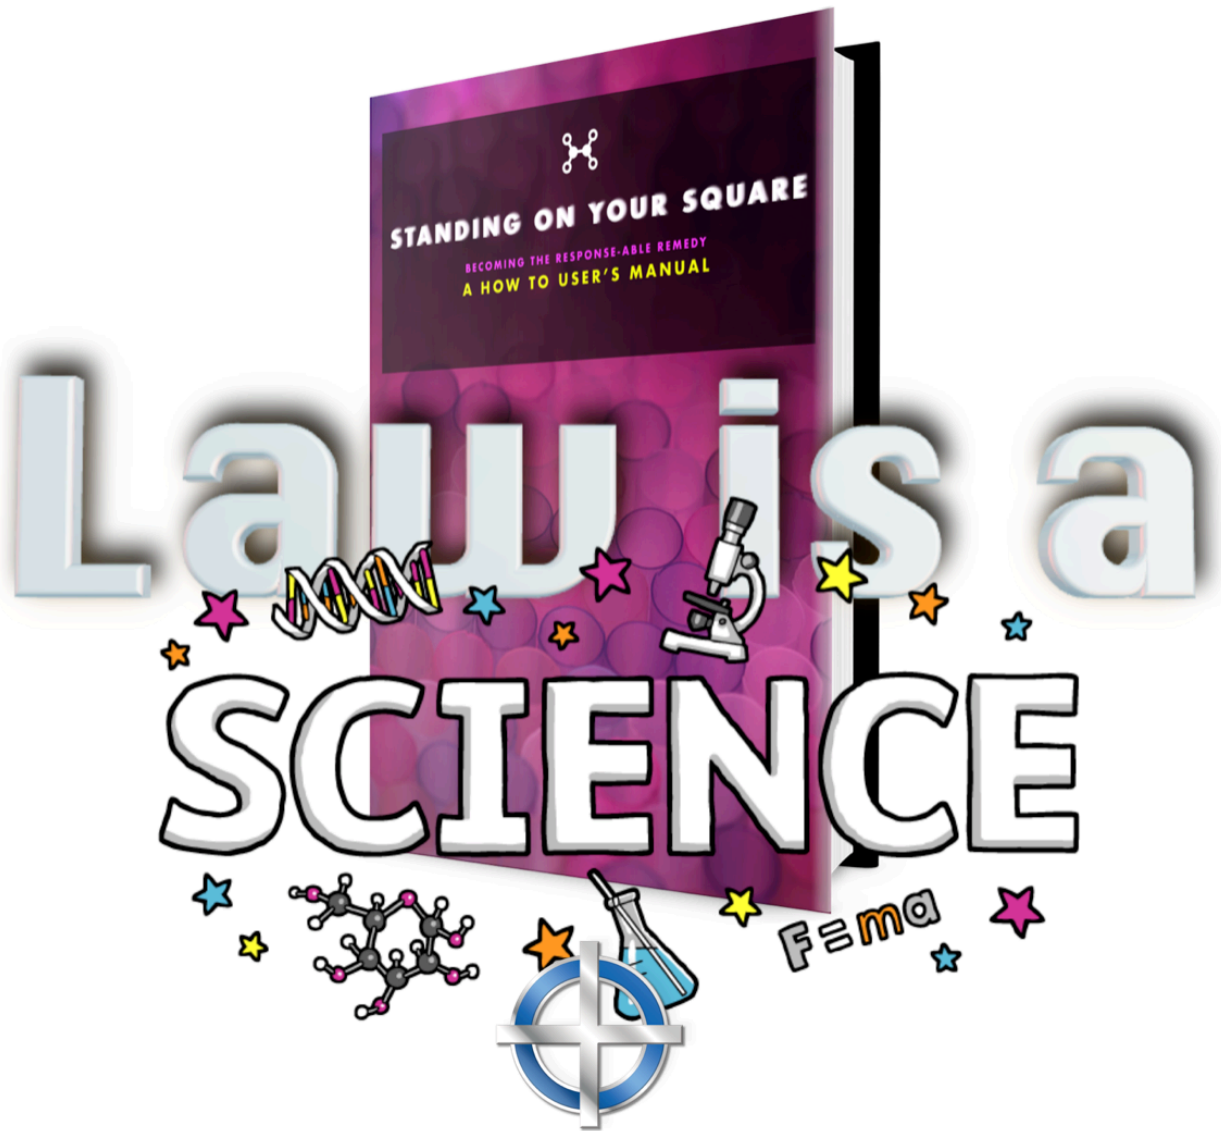

How do 400-600 slaves (suffering in the stifling heat of a cargo hull, vomiting and expelling copious body fluids) go FIVE MONTHS without drinkable water?

While you think of a logical answer, you may wish to also note that water having a far greater weight (per cubic inch) than that of a human body is the very reason we float.

As the science of physics would demonstrate, having an adequate amount of drinkable water aboard a clipper ship, enough to sustain the lives of 4-6 hundred enslaved humans is in all reality scientifically impossible. The weight of the water alone would without question cause the boat to sink at the dock. That's simple physics!

Further still, while pondering a reasonable answer to the riddle, picturing the purposed conditions; like that of a Hot Box, an improperly ventilated cargo hold with 400-600 bodies stacked 4 and 5 high suffering the stagnant fumes of Diarrhea, Perfuse Sweat, Baking Rotted Flesh of Festering Wounds, Dead Bodies, Mildew and more may also help one to gain a greater appreciate of how unlikely the transplanting scenario ever actually took place as we have been lead so easily without question to believe.

If you are still clinging to the belief that the so called or so BRANDED (American) Negro was in fact transplanted to this continent under the conditions as described above, you may wish to view and benefit from the scientific and historical anthropological evidence presented at TheMoorishDirectory.com .

Standing On Your Square while under real-world pressures requires not only a firm grasp of your subject, it requires possessing an unshakable sense of confidence!

That all important secure sense of self-confidence is perhaps the most valuable aspect of what this book has been designed to deliver its reader.

Because the extremely logical methodologies employed within this work scientifically follow the Laws of Nature, other than simply providing the usual facts and information alone; the vast amount of practical details, adept guidance, trustworthy counsel, and most assuredly the sound and highly reliable insights which provides one that quality of true enlightenment required for Standing SECURELY On Your Square! It is for this same, extremely logical reason, why the wisdom(s) of that Exceptional Master Mind Adept, Noble Drew Ali was so exceedingly specific in his purpose of selecting so precisely the word SCIENCE as the Central Focal Point in his naming of that this work has been developed for the benefit of the ACTIVE Members of our Indigenous and Aboriginal Moorish American Community. And that is because LAW is not only SPECIFIC, it is A SCIENCE. A SYSTEM which only functions in its most optimally effective manner when certain extremely SPECIFIC Methodologies of Functionality are CORRECTLY Employed! Like foolproof clockwork, the Scientific Logics of these SPECIFIC Methodologies Function with the same DIVINE PERFECTION as do the Operative UNIVERSAL LAWS Governing ALL of NATURE itself!

Teaching You The How To Methods of

Becoming "THE" Response-Able REMEDY

is in fact the ONLY Singular Reason The Temple and this book Exists!

When you grow within your wisdoms to a degree in which you become the CAUSE of most of what occurs in your life, you become your own COSMOS!

STANDING ON YOUR SQUARE

Becoming “THE” Response-Able “REMEDY”

sets you on that path toward understand how you'll become your own cosmos and/or become the cause of most, if not all, of what will transpire in your life from this point forward. Reading this book will for most, profoundly shift the effectiveness of all logics which dictate the outcome of everything you wish to accomplish in your life. As this process unfolds along your course of the newly revealed insights awaiting your discovery, inner-epiphanies become simply natural reactions of your systematic evolutionary development toward an evermore secure adept awareness of self and the inherent power you already possess. Your inherent genius is within the Genes-in-us,

SIMPLY WAITING TO BE UNLOCKED!

Memorizing is far more difficult than understanding. Once you truly understand a particular subject matter, memorization is no longer required. The subject matter simply becomes a naturally ineradicable aspect of your Core Being. Standing on Your Square becomes as natural as breathing air. If finding a solution or REMEDY to any tough subject, (e.g.: finding a sustainable REMEDY to a social conundrum) then memorizing treaty dates, law citations, codes and how to elude the tricky linguistic entanglements of Technical Legalese is NOT your solution. Once again: As you begin to truly understand any particular subject matter, memorization is no longer required. The correct answers simply becomes a naturally ineradicable aspect of your core being.

YOU BECOME THE REMEDY!

THE “HOW TO PROCESS”

Is Simply Scientific!

In order for anything to accurately qualify as being Scientific, it's constitution (i.e.: the fundamental principles of its intrinsic nature) “MUST” be Systematically Governed by the preciseness of that particular Paradigm's Methodology.

Once this is understood, everything about the subject becomes quite predictable.

Understanding the unconditional predictability of a subject does not make the subject's power mute, It Make The Subject's Power “YOURS”!

I'm going to now reveal a little something that I know extremely specific and very personal about you. . . . Yes!

“YOU”

All of your life, you've always known, but, for some reason, you just couldn't quite put your finger on it. That continuing whisper, that little something inside, always instinctively knowing, SOMETHING'S NOT RIGHT!

The reason I know this to be true, is because, otherwise, you would not be reading these words AT THIS VERY MOMENT! I assure you. You would have stopped reading long before reaching this point. You see! The ancient edict: SEEK, AND YE “SHALL” FIND, is in fact, a Divine Contract; a Cosmic Promise of The Highest Order!

The Contract doesn't say: Perhaps, or Maybe, Possibly or Could Be. No! It's UNEQUIVOCAL! Which means, it, EMPHATICALLY “MUST” OCCUR! Or from another vantage point it means: There's absolutely NO way possible for it not to occur SPECIFICALLY FOR YOU AS PROMISED! Your relationship with your Creator has always been uniquely. Why would anything regarding that fact just suddenly up and change at this point in time? You've always remain so diligently on your path toward this particular point, . . . and now, . . . Here You Are! How could you not eventually arrive at this place where you've always been headed? Sure, you may have veered off course from time to time, or gone around Robin Hood's Barn a few times always ending up at that same dead end on more occasions than you may like to admit. But, that's fine! It was all just simply part of your unique life's process bringing you here where in fact you are,

AT THIS VERY MOMENT!
